SEA Speakers on WUSF Radio show Florida Matters

submitted by Suzanne Williamson

The show, titled Art as Career, with host Carson Cooper, is about trying to make it as an artist in tough economic times. It highlights a local filmmaker and then continues with University of Tampa 2009 SEA Conference presenters Sharon Rose, Visual Arts and Randy Finch, Film Arts, as well as Suzanne Williamson, the SEA Conference Director.

Click on LISTEN NOW in the menu to hear the show, or download it as a podcast. Farther down on the web page there are web extras--segments which were cut from the show. The Resources section on the page has web links from the panelists, the national and UT SEA Conference websites, and resources mentioned during the show.

2008 & 09 SEA Conferences big successes!

With the help of our regional coordinators, SEA had conferences this year ranging from Washington to Florida and several stops in between.

Attendees were treated to engaging sessions led by practicing artists including visual artists like Tony Fitzpatrick and actress Eugenie Bondurat. Keep an eye out for information about next year's events.
